

NR351 Week 4 Professional Paper Worksheet

Ensure that your online custom writing services requirements. Check that your essay has a clearly defined problem statement, clear focus and purpose, and clear thesis statement.

Read the article assigned to you (see NR351 Week 4 announcement). Identify 2 main topics and a conclusion with excellent subtopics as required on Template.

Title Page

The title page is required in APA style papers. It includes the paper title, author names (the byline) and affiliation.

Place the title three to four lines down from the top of your page. Center it and use bold font. The title should be short and informative and must include important keywords.

Place the author name on a separate line, and write their first name, middle initial(s) and last name. Do not include titles such as "Dr." or "Professor" or degrees such as Ph.D or M.Sc. On the next double-spaced line, provide the authors' affiliations. If the authors are affiliated with different institutions, use superscript numerals to connect the affiliations. If the authors are affiliated with the same institution, leave the affiliation blank.

References

Use your Professional Paper worksheet assignment Worksheet to develop a complete Bibliography of the resources you used for your upcoming scholarly writing. The Bibliography must begin on a new page following your essay and include full citations for each source you referenced in your essay. It should be double-spaced and each entry should have a hanging indent.

Clearly state the assigned article (see announcement) for this assignment and create a reference for it using correct APA format including authors, year, article title, journal name, volume number, issue number, and page numbers. Type a short quotation (10-25 words) from the article using correct APA citation including quotation marks, authors' names, year, and parentheses.

Conduct an Internet search and find two quality Web sites. Conduct a Library database search and find two quality articles.

Quotation

Write a 10-25-word quotation from the article assigned based on your topic. Ensure that you cite the author(s) and year of the article in correct APA format (see Template). If necessary, paraphrase the quotation so that it is free of words or ideas that the authors cited from another source.

Carefully follow the Instructions and Rubric for this assignment to demonstrate your skills in NR351 Week 4 Professional Paper APA formatting, references, paraphrasing, and quotations. Also carefully review the template and resources provided on this page. You are encouraged to e-mail your instructor with any questions about this assignment. This assignment is due by Sunday end of Week 4. Good luck! -Sae

Paraphrasing

When integrating NR439 Week 3, paraphrasing is the preferred method over quoting (copying someone else's exact words and putting them in quotation marks). Paraphrasing lets you reword passages, while still showing that you understood what was written. It also reads more smoothly and keeps your own voice front and center.

But be careful not to get too close to the original wording, or you could accidentally commit plagiarism. When you paraphrase, be sure to cite the source in your text and keep your changes to a minimum.

Write a 175-200-word Summary of the assigned article. This Summary must contain the assigned sentence for quotation and citation as noted in the announcement, several additional paraphrased areas, and appropriately formatted citations.

Summary

The purpose of this assignment is to allow the learner to demonstrate writing skills, organizational skills, and ability to correctly present ideas and credit others in APA formatting when preparing a professional paper. Students will also practice identifying and understanding the perspectives of authors based on their backgrounds, beliefs, and experiences.

Carefully read the instructions and rubric for this week's assignment. Then complete the NR351 Professional Paper Worksheet. Submit your completed worksheet by Sunday end of Week 4, 11:59 p.m. MT. This assignment is worth 150 points.
